Bored Bored Bored

By Abigail Conroy

So, lemme guess. You're bored? Yeah, I get it, I am too. Luckily, I have put together a short article which will be updated monthly. Each update, there will be two new suggestions on things to do when you're bored.

Number 7 Go Swimming

Now that's it's almost Summer, it's gotten warm enough to go swimming. So, if you're bored, grab your swimsuit and take a trip to you're pool, a nearby lake or pond, or even the beach! Remember to have an adult or buddy present to ensure you safety. And most importantly, have fun!

Number 8 Fishing

Another fun thing to do now that school's ending is going fishing! Quick tip: use worms that you find in your yard! They are the same as the Dilly or Nightcrawler worms you can buy at the store and you don't have to pay for the worms you find in your yard! Another tip: Go to Robinson Pond or the large pond in Benson's Park. They're both not too far from our school and they both have lots of fish!

Drama Club is preparing to record an online performance of "Shakespeare's Got Talent!"

"Shakespeare's Got Talent!" is a commercial collection of some of Shakespeare's famous plays, including Romeo and Juliet, A Midsummer Night's Dream, and MacBeth!

The recording will be around 30 minutes long and will be released as a digital recording at some point during the month of June.

*Warning: Do not say the word "Macbeth", referring to the title of the play, while watching it. There's a curse or something. I don't know if it also refers to a recording and honestly, we don't need more bad luck.

1 tablespoons Butterscotch,
Caramel, Chocolate syrup

Add a really small amount of instant coffee if you want

Directions

Put everything in a cup and let it

Truly Me

Written & Submitted by  Abigail Conroy

The feeling, it was hard to explain. It was as if the wind blew safety and peace into my bones, overwhelming all of the insecurities inside. The rain began, and I breathed in its beautiful scent, which could only be described as transparent and clean. Miniscule raindrops fell into my hair and dripped onto my face, which held an excited grin. And as I stood there, arms open, spinning slowly, I felt my remaining fears wash away, leaving nothing but love and hope. Leaving nothing but me. Truly me.

Have a good Summer, guys! See ya next year—Abigail Conroy

Stay tuned for our first issue next school year! :)

HELPFUL TIP OF THE MONTH

It's getting sunnier out! Always remember to put sunscreen on when you know you're going to be in a place with direct sunlight for an extended period of time!

RECOMMENDATION(S) OF THE MONTH

Miraculous: Tales of Ladybug and Cat Noir is a really fun show to watch. You can find it on Netflix! It's really interesting and funny to watch all the villains get akumatized. This happens when the villain, Hawk-Moth (with the butterfly miraculous and kwami named Nuruu), sends out an evil "akuma" (moth/butterfly) to someone with negative emotions. A miraculous is a small piece of jewelry that a small kwami lives inside. The kwami is what gives the wearer powers. A funny thing about the Ladybug and Cat Noir costumes is that it only goes around their eyes (similar to a masquerade mask). Ladybug's ability is the power of creation and Cat Noir's ability is the power of destruction. (Disclaimer: Ladybug and Cat Noir do not know eachothers civilian identities. Though that could change...) Another really interesting part about this show is that Cat Noir (aka Adrien Agreste) has a crush on Ladybug, but she doesn't feel the same way, she likes another boy. Marinette Dupain-Cheng (Ladybug), has a crush on Adrien. They like eachother and dont even know it! It's really cool to watch the relationships unfold and extremely funny the reasons some people get akumatized because they can be so dramatic. If you want to watch this show, don't forget it is on Netflix!
